MERGING IDEAS WITH TECHNOLOGIES

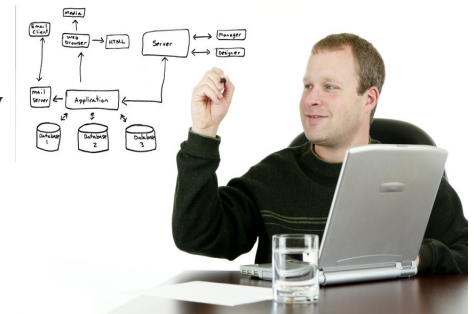

Intellect Technologies is a world-class developer of innovative software solutions for the logistics and supply chain management industries.

As a Professional Services organization, Intellect is a provider of talented technical, business, and management resources to organizations across multiple verticals. Led by a team of IT experts averaging more than 2 decades of experience, we are uniquely qualified to identify the right skills and capabilities to satisfy the requirements of any project and to deliver results on-time and within budget.

Driven by a non-compromising commitment to quality and performance, Intellect can plan and execute a strategy to deliver your entire project, or we can supplement your team with just the right resources to fill any gaps.

Intellect is committed to providing its clients with the top quality professionals of all the popular skillsets. Quality is our company's non-compromising objective and primary business driver. We evolved successfully from time to time. Our staffing specialists have deeper knowledge and exposure to identifying the right candidate, background checks, working closely with the hiring manager and close the position in a timely manner.
